The CURRENT LIST OF MEDICAL LITERATURE
is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents,
U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25,
D. C., $3.00 per year ($3.75 foreign) 10 cents per single copy. All communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Superintendent of Documents at the above address.

Published weekly by the ARMY MEDICAL LIBRARY
7th Street & Independence Ave., S. W., Washington
25, D. C., as an intraservice publication of the War Department. Lists all articles of medical interest contained in current journals received. Subject-indexes provided monthly. Exchange invited.

O. Allergy

J. Allergy, 1946, 17: (July)

SWINEFORD, O., jr. Reactions to antipneumococcal rabbit serum; failure to adsorb sensitizing antibody by Kieselgur, Fuller's earth, Berkefeld filtrations, and aluminum hydroxide. 187-9.

PEARSALL, H. R., EVERSOLE, S. L., & SWINEFORD, O., jr. Reactions to antipneumococcal rabbit serum; effects of varying amounts of pneumococcal polysaccharide on reversed passive anaphylaxis in guinea pigs; a simple roughly quantitative method of measuring circulating polysaccharide. 190-6.

SQUIER, T. L. Leucocyte fragility in transitory leucopenia. 197-202.

ARBESMAN, C. E., KOEPF, G. F., & MILLER, G. E. Some antianaphylactic and antihistaminic properties of N-pyridyl, N-benzyl, dimethylethylene-diamine monohydrochloride (pyribenzamine). 203-9.

EYERMAN, C. H. Clinical experiences with a new antihistaminic drug. 210-6.

FEINBERG, S. M. Histamine antagonists; summary of developments in nonspecific inhibition of histamine, anaphylaxis, and allergy. 217-30.

SELYE, H. The general adaptation syndrome and the diseases of adaptation. 231; passim.

I. Anatomy; Histology

Anat. Rec., 1946, 95: (Jun.)

LACHMAN, E. Is the concept of the anatomical position still tenable? a contribution to the subject of anatomical nomenclature. 81-7.

LEWIS, M. R., SLOVITER, H. A., & GOLAND, P. P. In vivo staining and retardation of growth of sarcoma in mice. 89-96.

SILBERBERG, M., & SILBERBERG, R. Further investigations on the effect of the male sex hormone on endochondral ossification. 97-117, incl. 3 pl.

EMORY, L. Method of duplicating anatomical specimens. 119-24.

SZEPSENWOL, J. A comparison of growth, differentiation, activity and action currents of heart and skeletal muscle in tissue culture. 125-46.

ATKINSON, W. B., & LEATHEM, J. H. The day to day level of estrogen and progesterin during lactation in the mouse. 147-57, pl.

EMMEL, V. M. The intracellular distribution of alkaline phosphatase activity following various methods of histologic fixation. 159-75, incl. pl.

De BRUYN, P. P. H. The amoeboid movement of the mammalian leukocyte in tissue culture. 177-91, incl. 2 pl.

JOHNSON, P. L., & BEVELANDER, G. Glycogen and phosphatase in the developing hair. 193-9, incl. pl.

Q. J. Micr. Sc., Lond., 1946, 87: (May)

KERR, T. The development of the pituitary of the laboratory mouse. 3-29, 3 pl.

WU, C. C. On the origin of the acrosome and the behaviour of the nebenkern in Dicentrurus mena sp. 31-43, 3 pl.

BAHL, K. N. Studies on the structure, development, and physiology of the nephridia of Oligochaeta; the enteronephric type of nephridial system in earthworms belonging to three species of Megascolex Templeton and three species of Travoscolides Gates (Megascolides McCoy) 45-60.

TSUI, C. L. Development of olfactory organ in Rana nigromaculata. 61-90.

TSUI, C. L. Morphological observations on the fate of the lateral appendix in the embryonic olfactory organ of Rana nigromaculata. 91-101.

Q. J. Micr. Sc., Lond., 1946, 87: (Jul.)

HAYES, C. Further observations on Amoeba discoides. 195-201.

2. Anthropology; Ethnology

Am. J. Phys. Anthropol., 1946, 4: (Jun.)

VAN DE GINSTE, F. Anthropometric study on the Bapende and Basuku of the Belgian Congo. 125-52.

SELTZER, C. C., & GALLAGHER, J. R. Somatotypes of an adolescent group. 153-68.

RENES, R. C. Symmetrical and asymmetrical occurrence of papillary patterns. 169-92.

ASHLEY MONTAGU, M. F. The significance of the premaxillary diastema in Pithecanthropus robustus (skull IV) 193-8.

WEIDENREICH, F. Maxillary diastema as a criterion of generic distinction. 199-202.

CHOUKE, K. S. On the incidence of the foramen of Civinini and the porus crotaphiticobuccinatorius in American whites and Negroes; observations on 1544 skulls. 203-26, incl. pl.

LANIER, P. F., & TROTTER, M. The volume of the sacral canal. 227-34.

MICHELSON, N. A method for assessing the development of the hand skeleton. 235-42.

ARMATTOE, R. E. G., & McMILLAN, E. M. Some factors in the mechanism of sex-determination. 252.

GARN, S. M. Hair structure related to hair form. 252.

EWING, J. F. Aurignacian man in Syria. 252.
